NEW LIFE MASTERS

Roy Bungay, one of our very newest Life Masters, is a modest and unassuming man from Stephenville, NL. He avoided having his picture taken for this publication, and took great care to give all possible credit to the Hubley, NS, who played with him on Saturday and Sunday.

These partners all assure us that, not only is Mr. Bungay a strong enough player to secure Life Masterhood without any help from them, he is also kind of cute and really ought to have his picture published here.

Today's other new Life Master,

Duncan Beveridge with new Life Master, Margot Beveridge, Jean Beveridge, and teammate Lydia Prange partners who share this victory with him.

These include Brenda Woodman of Mount Pearl, NL (Thursday Aft side game), Mary House of Halifax (Friday open pairs), and Dorothy Chisholm of Margot Beveridge, (pictured here with her team-mates) came to the Can-At while on a two-year-long quest for her last elusive 4.55 gold points. The final round of yesterday's knockouts saw her take 4.9 gold and the coveted status of Life Master.

FINAL CURTAIN —

FAREWELL FROM THE CHAIR, G. CALLAGHAN

And now the time has come to say goodbye; of that we are certain.

Mistakes, we have made a few, but none we hope you mention. Throughout it all we tried to do it your way.

Thanks to our caddies and to our great directing crew of Henry, Jacques and Karl.

Empty chairs, idle bidding boxes. Silence reigns over the erstwhile battlefield.

Thanks as well to Jerry Helms and Mike Cappelletti, our guest speakers.

Ours is a small regional with a big heart. We hope you have all enjoyed our hospitality and wish you a safe trip home.

On behalf of all the players, I thank the committee who created this event: Gerry Callaghan, chairman, Kathie MacNab, mastermind, Bill Halliday and Terry Shaw, partnerships, Arthur Donahoe, Nancy Fraser, and Mary House, who secured the many prizes and gifts some of us won, Pam Tracey, who managed the awarding and distribution of those prizes, Brian Lafferty, who printed this excellent newsletter, Doug Hamilton, who was in charge of making sure that everybody else did their jobs (also arranging and promoting the Tall Ship Silva cruise), Beverley McDonald, intrepid reporter and newsletter photographer, and Jim McDonald, newsletter drudge and dogsbody.

THANKS AND PRAISE FOR OUR TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE

Also probably a number of other people who worked really hard but who didn't make sure that I had their names by press time.

And, of course, myself, for all the outstanding spelling, paragraphing, and comma placement herein.

THE TOLSON CLUB—NOW IT CAN BE TOLD! — FRED MUISE, LIFE MASTER*

*(See Can-At Daily News Vol. 1 No. 3)

Playing this week in the KO finals against John & Lynn Tolson, Dianne and I had the following auction:

1♣ by Dianne, pass by Lynne, 2♠ by me, 2♦ by John, 5♣ by Dianne, all float.

I have a bad feeling about this. We don't play the Tolson Club, but bad things can happen when you are not indoctrinated into it, and Dianne is not.

John is relaxed and smiling—BAD SIGN.

Dianne plays well. Draws trump, finesses, ruffs, discards. Thinks, "Bridge is such a beautiful game! Life is beautiful!"

Now, with only five cards left in dummy, I relax a bit and hear my partner say, "Fred, you have too many cards." Long pause. John and Lynn pipe up, "We have five cards, too!"

Dianne mutters, "But I only have three."

While waiting for Karl to arrive, we discover the two missing cards still in the board.

Karl arrives and announces, "This could be Good or Bad."

After a full and frank exchange of views, my worst fears come true. One trick penalty, down one, 11 imps to the Tolsons.

BRIDGE TIP 101: Never open 1♣ against the Tolsons unless thoroughly indoctrinated!

(Especially with an 11-card hand. —Ed)

Overheard at the table — after the first segment of a three-way match, the E-W pair was slow to move.

YOUR BOARDS OR YOUR LIFE!

were now circling in a holding pattern.

Since it's their responsibility to deliver the boards they'd just played to their teammates, all three tables

One of the opponents approached the table and announced: "OK!! Stand and deliver!!!"

HANGING OUT WITH THE I/N CROWD . . .

At the end of any tournament, organizers like to publish statistics on the Total points many players away. Anything, us look good.

There's though, that I'd lish, but I don't this: number of junkies created

Here you see the smile of a lady who has just won her very first gold points ever. Can you relate to that? She is by no means the only one. But no one was counting this category.

Doesn't matter.

These people all know who they are.

And all the rest of us would give something to feel what they're feeling today.

The longest journey begins with the first step. This is the first step on the road to Life Master.

I earnestly hope that I'm here when they cross that finish line. I want to tell them that I was here with them to-
